Roger/Krystal,

At the Spring Auditors Conference the State Board of Accounts went over Grant Procedures. It was EMPHASIED that each county have a Grant Policy in place and it was the responsibility of the Auditor's Office to put a Grant Application Procedure Policy together. Please find attached the Policy that I have put together. Dixie has seen the policy and is copied on this to keep him in the loop. Please look over the attachment and make any suggestions, additions and/or deletions that you believe will enhance the document. Also there is a suggested Joint Resolution that will need to be put forth to the Commissioners and Council.

Thank you for your cooperation on this project.

NEA GUIDELINES FOR OMB CIRCULAR A-133 AUDITS

(Rev. 4/09)

Only non-Federal entities that expend $500,000 or more of Federal awards in a year are required to obtain an annual audit in accordance with the Single Audit Act Amendments of 1996, as amended, Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circular A-133, "Audits of States, Local Governments and Non-Profit Organizations," the OMB Circular A-133 Compliance Supplement and Government Auditing Standards.

Entities expending less than $500,000 in a year are exempt from Federal audit requirements, but must make records available for review or audit by Federal agencies or pass-through entities (non-Federal entities from whom they receive Federal funds), if requested.

The Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circular A-133 (A-133), "Audits of States, Local Governments and Other Nonprofit Institutions," establishes audit requirements and defines Federal responsibilities for audit oversight. In general, the audits should be conducted on an organization-wide basis to test the following: (1) the fiscal integrity of the financial transactions; (2) the effectiveness of the internal control structure including controls over Federal awards; and (3) compliance with the terms and conditions of the Federal grants and other agreements.

Listed below are compliance issues that should be considered as part of the audit, if applicable. Furthermore, organizations that have either (1) a grant from NEA's "Planning and Stabilization" category, or (2) a grant for an endowment that was awarded prior to July 1, 1996, should contact the Office of Inspector General (OIG) for additional information about specific compliance issues applicable to these grants. The OIG can be reached by telephone at (202) 682-5402.

Requirements Per OMB Compliance Supplement

1. Whether Federal awards were expended only for allowable activities;
2. Whether the costs included in the final financial status reports (FSR) comply with the grant cost principles (including maintaining personnel activity reports to allocate salaries and fringe benefits) and whether the costs were incurred for the intended purposes of the grants;
3. Whether grantee's financial management systems include procedures to minimize the time elapsed between the transfer of funds from the U.S. Treasury and the disbursement of those funds in accordance with NEA and/or U.S. Treasury guidelines;
4. Whether grantee complied with the Davis-Bacon Act (construction projects);
5. Whether grantee is eligible based on the type of organization, legal requirements, staffing, programming history, etc.;
6. Whether grantee is managing and disposing of equipment and real property as required;
7. Whether the matching, level of effort, and earmarking requirements of the grants were met (usually, there is a one to one match, but the grant terms and conditions and/or program guidelines should be reviewed to verify the matching requirements);
8. Whether Federal funds were obligated within the period of availability;
9. Whether grantee followed the procurement requirements identified in A-133 and ensured that parties that they deal with are not suspended or debarred;
10. Whether program income is correctly recorded and used in accordance with the program requirements;
11. Whether grantee complied with the real property acquisition, appraisal, negotiation, and

- residential relocation requirements, etc.;
12. Whether the required reports (financial, performance or special) for Federal awards include all activity of the reporting period, and are supported by accounting and performance records;
 13. Whether the pass-through entity identifies Federal award information and compliance requirements, monitors subrecipient activities, ensures required audits are performed, etc.; and
 14. Whether grantee complies with the Labor Standards on Projects or Productions Assisted by Grants from the NEA (29 CFR Part 505). (Note: This means that professional performers and related or supporting professional personnel including stagehands, electricians, etc. must be paid at least the prevailing minimum union scale for persons employed on similar activities even if the organization is not a union shop.)

For an A-133 audit, the following reports may be required to be prepared. (See AICPA Audit Guide, Government Auditing Standards and Circular A-133 Audits for sample auditor reports.)

- Report on financial statements and on the supplementary schedule of expenditures of Federal awards
- Opinion on the financial statements and on the supplementary schedule of expenditures of Federal awards
- Report on internal control over financial reporting and on compliance and other matters based on an audit of financial statements performed in accordance with GAS
- Report on compliance with requirements applicable to each major program and on internal control over compliance in accordance with Circular A-133
- Schedule of findings and questioned costs, if applicable
- Summary schedule of prior audit findings
- Corrective action plan for current findings
- Data collection form

For program-specific audits, review A-133 to determine which reports should be prepared.

REPORTING PACKAGE

Within nine months following the end of the audit period, a reporting package should be submitted to the Federal Audit Clearinghouse. The package should include the reports listed above. Both the auditor and the auditee should prepare the Data Collection Form. The auditor is responsible for the section on financial statements, schedule of expenditures of federal awards, related auditor reports, and for signing as the preparer of the section. The auditee is responsible for all other sections of the Form. One copy of the package should be submitted for the Clearinghouse and, in addition, one copy of the entire package should be submitted for each Federal-awarding agency identified in the schedule of findings and questioned costs (or summary of prior audit findings). The package(s) should be sent to the following address:

Federal Audit Clearinghouse
Bureau of the Census
1201 E. 10th Street
Jeffersonville, IN 47132

OMB A-133 Compliance Supplement

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

The OMB A-133 Compliance Supplement is a large and extensive United States federal government guide created by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) and used in auditing federal assistance and federal grant programs, as well as their respective recipients. It is considered to be the most important tool of an auditor for a Single Audit.

It was created following amendments in 1996 to the Single Audit Act based on numerous studies performed by the Government Accountability Office, the President's Council on Integrity and Efficiency and the National State Auditors Association (NSAA). It serves to identify existing important compliance requirements that the Federal Government expects to be considered as part of a Single Audit. Without it, auditors would need to research many laws and regulations for each single program of a recipient to determine which compliance requirements are important to the Federal Government. For Single Audits, the Supplement replaces any agency audit guides and other audit requirement documents for individual Federal programs.^[1]

Divisions

The OMB A-133 Compliance Supplement is divided into 7 divisions:

- Part I: Background, Purpose, and Applicability – Presents a brief description of the history of the Single Audit, defines the purpose of the OMB Circular A-133, and establishes where and why the Single Audit applies.^[2]
- Part II: Matrix of Compliance Requirements – This section is a table which details the federal programs which are common within the US and specifies which compliance requirement applies to each program.^[2]
- Part III: Compliance Requirements – This section provides guidance and description on the 14 types of compliance guidelines established by federal agencies which summarize the compliance with federal laws and regulations in a general way. It also provides the auditor with certain audit objectives and suggested audit procedures to facilitate the audit. All federal programs, recipients, and auditors are required to follow these guidelines.^[2]

- Part IV: Agency Program Requirements – By far the largest section of the Supplement, this section is similar to Part III with the exception that it provides the information program by program in substantial detail. Whereas Part III simply discusses the 14 compliance requirements, this section discusses how each requirement applies to a particular program. This section also provides a brief history of the program, discusses program objectives and operations, and provides the auditor with much more specific suggested audit procedures.^[2]
- Part V: Clusters of Programs – This section is similar to Part IV, with the exception that it discusses clusters of programs, which are a grouping of closely related programs that have similar compliance requirements, such as Research and Development (R&D), Student Financial Aid (SFA), and other clusters. Although the programs within a cluster are administered as separate programs, a cluster of programs is treated as a single program for the purpose of meeting the audit requirements of OMB Circular A-133.^[2]
- Part VI: Internal Control – Federal guidelines require recipients to implement an internal control system to manage federal funds in keeping with compliance requirements. They also require auditors to obtain an understanding of the recipient's system as well as verify if it is operating correctly. This section helps recipients and auditors by describing, for each type of compliance requirement, the objectives and certain characteristics of internal control that, when present and operating effectively, may ensure compliance with program requirements. This is especially helpful for auditors because it describes characteristics of internal control which may be implemented and used by the recipient and verified and audited by the auditor to reasonably ensure compliance with the types of compliance requirements in Part III.^[2]
- Part VII: Guidance for Auditing Programs Not Included in This Compliance Supplement – This section provides guidance to auditors regarding federal programs that were not covered in Part II, Part IV and Part V of the Supplement, including providing suggestions on how to research for laws and regulations applicable to that particular program and suggesting audit procedures to perform.^[2]

Compliance requirements

Main article: Compliance requirements

Compliance requirements are series of directives established by US federal government agencies that guide recipients and auditors on how federal assistance should be managed. The OMB created 14 basic requirements which group all those compliance requirements and provided extensive array of information about them in the Compliance Supplement.
